Tourist tax : 2,30€ per person and per night

Our venue is in the center of town. There's a whole bunch of accommodation possibilities, like hotels, aribnb, or 'appart-hotels'. Please let us know if you need help choosing something regarding to your budget or wills.

- Restauration :

Our venue is in the enter of town, so you'll find easily a lot of places to eat :

- historical center : 5min walk
- commercial center Le Polygne : 1min walk
- close areas : Antigone (5 min), Beaux-Arts (less than 10min)

You might expect to pay around 25€ a two dish lunch.

- Transportation :

Montpellier has a good transportation service in particular with a 4 lines tramway.

Salle Pagezy is on line 1 (the blue tramway). Stop : Comédie. Then 5 min walk.

The program :

Friday, January 19th :

10am-4pm : Choir director's congress

Registrations will be held at Salle Pagezy from 5pm

7pm : Workshop with Fred Lewin

8pm-10pm : Workshop with Ricky Dillard

Saturday, January 20th :

9am : Welcome

9.30 : Warm up with Fred Lewin

11am-3pm : Workshop with Ricky Dillard

From 7pm to 9pm: Musical night : Every choir represented may have a 10min free stage to present a bit of its program. Stage, sound and instruments available. We want that moment to be a way for everyone to discover other groups. This evening is private and reserved for the participants at the Festival.

Sunday, January 21st :

9.30am : welcome

10am-1pm : Workshop with Fred Lewin

From 2pm : final rehearsal with Ricky Dillard, soundcheck and final concert.

We plan to finish our week-end at 8pm.

Please, feel free to write us for any further information, we'll do our best to answer good, and make that week-end an unforgettable Gospel Feast for all of us.

Although, please understand that all the Festival is organized and held by the volunteer singers from GN/AS Gospel. Everyone is doing his best to prepare the best journey possible. So please, be understandable and respectful to everyone who gives his best. ;-)

Thank you so much.

Can't wait to see you there !
